

Aven

ELEGANT & ERGONOMIC: GOOD THINGS
COME IN SLEEK PACKAGES

A lean profile, chic channel stitching and countless customization options make Aven a smart choice for the executive office or the boardroom. Customizable with a mid- or high-back, a broad array of arm, base and finish options along with hundreds of woven, vinyl and polyurethane textiles, Aven looks and feels tailor-made.

With adjustable or fixed arms and multiple control options, Aven delivers ergonomics that energize. A plush seat and curved back provide natural designed-in lumbar support for all-day comfort.

Award-winning Aven is made of responsibly sourced materials, using limited components in efficient manufacturing. Easily replaceable parts mean less waste. And with more than 75% of its materials sourced from post-consumer or renewable inputs, including 72% recycled steel and 10% recycled plastic, Aven represents a thoughtfully sustainable approach to design.
